

Volunteer Connection

The Volunteer Center of Ozaukee County (VCOC) partners with nonprofit agencies serving as a clearinghouse service for volunteers and donated items to assist community agencies in fulfilling their missions. As a full partner of the VCOC, each organization benefits from the following services:

Website:

- Agency webpage featuring your information and volunteer needs on www.volunteerozaukee.com.
- Volunteer opportunities also posted on www.volunteermatch.org.
- Volunteerozaukee.com website is supported by, nationally recognized, 1-800 Volunteer.org, which enhances visibility opportunities.
- Detailed listings of volunteer opportunities maintained by VCOC's Volunteer Coordinator.
- Fundraising and volunteer events publicized on website's calendar.
- Agency mission statement and purpose featured on the website

Promotions:

- Agency information and opportunities highlighted at speaking engagements throughout the community.
- Local newspapers and cable access channels promote agencies' volunteer opportunities.
- Agency brochures distributed to libraries and community Welcome Wagons.
- VCOC promotes partner agencies literature at volunteer fairs, job fairs and other public events

Volunteer Management:

- VCOC Newsletter with topics specific to Volunteer Management issues from professionals in VM field
- Volunteer Management Virtual Training provided.
